

Remembering Judi Bari

Albion School
Friday Mar. 2
7:00 PM

On the tenth anniversary of Judi Bari's passing on Mar. 2, 1997, we will gather to remember and honor her with films, pictures, songs and stories.

We begin at 7:00 PM with a film and video screening featuring the Mendocino Coast premiere of The Forest For The Trees, an award-winning one-hour documentary about Judi and the 2002 trial of her successful civil rights lawsuit against the the FBI and Oakland Police. The film, which has won honors and awards at film festivals across the country, will be shown on the Sundance Channel during May. Filmmaker Bernadine Mellis is the daughter of Judi's lead attorney Dennis Cunningham.

Judi's close friend, singer/songwriter Alicia Littletree will lead off the second part of the program with some songs and stories about Judi, with everyone invited to share their own stories. Bring musical instruments, photos, banners and other memorabilia if you have any.

Friends of Judi Bari and the Albion Nation invite you to join us. Admission is free.

photo by Evan Johnson